	14.9.2005 Shri Pankaj Agarwal, counsel for the petitioner. Shri Yashwant Singh Thakur, Govt. Advocate for the State. The petitioner has preferred this writ petition for giving direction to respondent No.2 to register and hear the revision petition filed by the petitioner along with an application for stay. The case of the petitioner is that the petitioner filed a revision petition along with stay application before respondent No.2 against the order passed in Second Appeal by the Registrar, Co-operative Societies, Chhattisgarh, Raipur, but even elapse of 4½ months the revision petition has not been registered and hearing of stay application is not being taken up. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the limited prayer of the petitioner is that respondent No.2 be directed to register the revision petition and decide the same in accordance with law. In normal circumstances this Court ought not to have interfered with but as the revision petition is pending since last 4½ months and allegations are that revision petition is not taken up for hearing even once that is why in the extra ordinary situation this order is being passed.
